PARISH NEWS

COVID-19 Update

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

It is with great joy that we welcome you back to our church! It has been a long time since we have prayed together at St Luke's.

As everybody knows Churches in the Archdiocese of Sydney will be re-opening from Monday, 25 October. That means that we will resume our regular weekday Masses from that day, and will be welcoming majority of you back on the weekend of 30-31 October for our regular weekend Mass time schedule. All details are on the front page of our bulletin.

In the case that things should change and we will be able to come to church earlier, we will ensure that this will be communicated to you.

On our return, in accordance with NSW health regulations, we will need to follow the steps that were in place before lockdown:

- The number of people attending Mass at our Church is 160 (1 person/4sqm)
- As you enter church it is essential that you please use the QR code, or use our regular sign-in sheets, that we used before lockdown, for the Mass that you attend.
- Please make use of the hand sanitizer in the entry of the Church, and be aware that masks are mandatory inside Churches.
- The sign of peace should only be given by a simple bow or nod of the head (excluding family members).
- Those who wish to receive Holy Communion on the tongue will be asked to wait for Father until the end of the Communion Procession.
- Congregational signing will not be permitted until further notice.

We will continue to livestream our Vigil Mass at 5pm, and look forward to being together in prayer once again. God bless, Father Tadeusz Seremet SDS.

Facts about St Luke the Evangelist

- He was a Physician - Paul refers to Luke as a doctor in Colossians 4:14. Throughout his writings, Luke uses precise medical terms to describe people's afflictions.
- Patron Saint of Artists, Physicians and Surgeons.
- The Evangelist - Matthew, Mark, Luke and John are regarded as the Four Evangelists because their writings proclaim the "good news" (or gospel) of Jesus Christ.
- He was a confidant of the Virgin Mary
- He was a companion of St Paul - from the Book of Acts and Paul's writings, we know that Luke was a companion of Paul. He includes himself in some of the narratives in the Book of Acts.
- He never met Jesus in person - Luke makes it clear that he was not an eyewitness to Jesus' ministry (Luke 1:104). He wrote his gospel using documents and accounts from people who were actually there.
- A Gentile - Many people argue that St Luke was a Gentile—which would make him the only Gentile author of the New Testament. This is speculation and can't really be proven or disproven.
- An Artist - Around the 18th century, a tradition emerged that Luke was an artist, and that he'd painted Mary, Paul and Peter, as well as produced an illustrated gospel. This is almost certainly false.
- A major biblical author - Between the Gospel of Luke and the Book of Acts, Luke wrote about 27.5% of the New Testament—that's more than anyone else. Including Paul!

Parish Collections

We thank you for caring for our Parish during this difficult time. As we still don't have any church services, we encourage you to make a donation towards both first and second collections using the QR code to the left, or via the Parish website online payments. You are also welcome to place your donations in an envelope and drop in the presbytery mailbox. Thank you for your generosity and continued support. <https://www.bpoint.com.au/pay/REVESBYPARISH1>

Prayer to Saint Luke

*Most wonderful St. Luke you are animated by the Heavenly Spirit of Love.
In faithfully detailing the humanity of Jesus, you also showed His Divinity and His genuine compassion for all human beings.
May the Holy Spirit, instructor of the faithful, help me to understand Christ's words and faithfully apply them in my life.
Amen.*

TWENTY NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
YEAR B - SUNDAY, 17 OCTOBER 2021

Entrance Antiphon Cf. Ps 16:6,8

To you I call; for you will surely heed me, O God;
turn your ear to me; hear my words.
Guard me as the apple of your eye;
in the shadow of your wings protect me.

First Reading Is 53:10-11

The Lord has been pleased to crush his servant with suffering.

If he offers his life in atonement,
he shall see his heirs, he shall have a long life
and through him what the Lord wishes will be done.

His soul's anguish over he shall see the light and be content.

By his sufferings shall my servant justify many,
taking their faults on himself.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 32:4-5. 18-20. 22. R. v.22

(R.) Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

1. The word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted.
The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love. (R.)
2. The Lord looks on those who revere him, on those who hope in his love.
to rescue their souls from death,
to keep them alive in famine. (R.)
3. Our soul is waiting for the Lord.
The Lord is our help and our shield.
May your love be upon us, O Lord,
as we place all our hope in you. (R.)

Second Reading Heb 4:14-16

Since in Jesus, the Son of God, we have the supreme high priest who has gone through to the highest heaven, we must never let go of the faith that we have professed. For it is not as if we had a high priest who was incapable of feeling our weaknesses with us; but we have one who has been tempted in every way that we are, though he is without sin. Let us be confident, then, in approaching the throne of grace, that we shall have mercy from him and find grace when we are in need of help.

Gospel Acclamation Mk 10:45

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Son of Man came to serve and to give his life as a ransom for all. Alleluia!

Gospel Mk 10:35-45

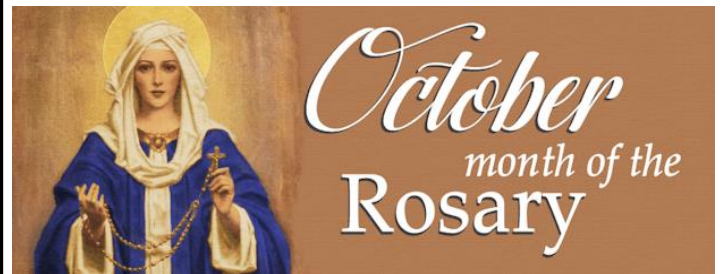

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, approached Jesus. 'Master,' they said to him, 'we want you to do us a favour.' He said to them, 'What is it you want me to do for you?' They said to him, 'Allow us to sit one at your right hand and the other at your left in your glory.' 'You do not know what you are asking' Jesus said to them. 'Can you drink the cup that I must drink, or be baptised with the baptism with which I must be baptised?' They replied, 'We can.' Jesus said to them, 'The cup that I must drink you shall drink, and with the baptism with which I must be baptised you shall be baptised, but as for seats at my right hand or my left, these are not mine to grant; they belong to those to whom they have been allotted.'

When the other ten heard this they began to feel indignant with James and John, so Jesus called them to him and said to them: 'You know that among the pagans their so-called rulers lord it over them, and their great men make their authority felt. This is not to happen among you. No; anyone who wants to become great among you must be your servant, and anyone who wants to be first among you must be slave to all. For the Son of Man himself did not come to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.'

Communion Antiphon Cf. Ps 32:18-19

Behold, the eyes of the Lord are on those who fear him, who hope in his merciful love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine.
